

Saturday

9:00AM – 10:30AM

Pro Bono

Chair: Robert E. McKenzie, Arnstein & Lehr LLP, Chicago, IL

9:00am

Oversight of Low Income Taxpayer Clinics. The National Taxpayer Advocate administers the Low Income Taxpayer Clinics grants and is charged with oversight responsibility. During this session, the National Taxpayer Advocate will discuss the grant and oversight process. She will also discuss the keys to successful programs and the pitfalls that lead to failure. Moderator: Robert E. McKenzie, Arnstein & Lehr LLP, Chicago, IL. Panelist: Nina Olson, National Taxpayer Advocate, Office of Taxpayer Advocates Service, IRS, Washington, DC.

10:00am

Report on the Section of Taxation's Study of Low Income Taxpayer Clinics. The Section has conducted an extensive study on LITC's and the panel will report on results to the committee. Moderator: Catherine Engell, American Bar Association Section of Taxation, Washington, DC. Panelist: Professor Diana Leyden, University of Connecticut, Hartford, CT.

10:20am

Committee Business. Reports from subcommittee chairs and project chairs.